

Workshop on HSC-HE Collaboration in ICT

Supporting Education, Research & Clinical Practice

AGENDA

28th April 2008

Bracken Room, Comfort Hotel, 20 Dunsilly Road, Antrim

9.30 am – 1.00 pm

9.00 TEA/COFFEE on Arrival

9.30 INTRODUCTION

9.35 Access to Information Resources Helen Jenkins, QUB

9.50 Online Teaching & Learning Paddy Brannigan & Maria Lee/Gill Kelly, QUB

10.20 Interconnectivity Malcolm Teague, JANET

10.40 Internet Service Provision for the
NI Education & Public Sector Chris Kelly, NIRAN

11.00 COFFEE BREAK

11.30 SUMMARY of Requirements

11.40 WORKSHOP THEME 1: Technical & Security Issues

- Meeting bandwidth requirements (e.g. ring-fencing/NIRAN)
 - The research/site filtering conflict
 - Individual/Generic logons and security
 - Personal email accounts (e.g. for SED)
 - Webmail accounts for students and mobile clinical staff
 - Service enablement (e.g. Ports/servers, FTP, SED, e-Payments)
 - Portable device usage
 - Levels of internet access for different user groups (e.g. HSC staff, students)
 - Connecting networks
-

12.20 WORKSHOP THEME 2: Working Together

- Purposes of HSC-HE collaboration, e.g :
 - Co-ordinating HSC-HE technical matters
 - Identifying mutual interests
 - Communicating re: new and evolving user requirements
 - Assessing emerging technologies and their implications in context
 - Resolving policy conflicts
 - Exploring options for interconnectivity
 - Methods of Communication (e.g. HSC-HE Forum)
-

1.00 LUNCH